

Deployment Zone

The diagram is a vertical rectangle divided into three horizontal bands. The top band is light red and labeled 'Deployment Zone'. The middle band is light gray and labeled 'Exclusion Zone'. The bottom band is light blue and labeled 'Deployment Zone'. A dashed gray line runs horizontally through the middle of the gray band. In the upper part of the gray band, there are three blue dots and the word 'Civilians'. In the lower part of the gray band, there are three red dots and the word 'Civilians'. The entire diagram is framed by a thick blue border. There are also some faint, semi-transparent geometric shapes in the background, such as a large light blue polygon on the left and some squares and rectangles in the red and blue bands.
