

Deployment Zone

The diagram is a vertical rectangle divided into three horizontal bands. The top band is light red and labeled 'Deployment Zone'. The middle band is gray and labeled 'Exclusion Zone' at the bottom, with 'Tech-Coffins' written above two magenta circles. The bottom band is light blue and labeled 'Deployment Zone'. The entire diagram is framed by a light blue border. There are also some faint, larger light blue shapes in the background of the white areas.
