

Deployment Zone

The diagram is enclosed in a light blue border. It is divided into three horizontal sections. The top section is a solid red band labeled 'Deployment Zone' in white text. The middle section is a gray band labeled 'Exclusion Zone' in white text, separated from the top and bottom sections by solid black lines. A horizontal dashed gray line runs through the center of the gray band. Above this dashed line, the word 'Civilians' is written in white, with four blue dots positioned above it. Below the dashed line, the word 'Civilians' is written in white, with four red dots positioned below it. The bottom section is a solid blue band labeled 'Deployment Zone' in white text. The background of the white areas above and below the gray band features faint, light blue geometric shapes.
